

Concluding Event:
Research Projects on "Human rights: a historical and critical approach"

Sunday March 29th, 2015,
Faculty of Law, Tel Aviv University, Room 306

10:00 – 12:30 – First Panel

Greetings:

Prof. Leora Bilsky, Faculty of Law, Tel Aviv University.

Ms. Dana Alexander

Bringing Home the Critical Approach to Human Rights: Can an Active Human Rights Organization Adopt a Critical Approach to Human Rights Discourse?

Commentators: Dr. Yofi Tirosh, Faculty of Law, Tel Aviv University

Ms. Maya Mark

Dr. Rotem Giladi:

Not Our Salvation: Israel, the Genocide Convention, and the World Court 1950-1951

Commentators: Dr. Eliav Lieblich, IDC Herzliya

Ms. Natalie Davidson

Ms. Maya Mark

Political rights and the politics of rights: A political Biography of the prevention of terrorism ordinance

Commentators: Prof. Yechiam Weitz, Faculty of Humanities, University of Haifa

Mr. Rotem Giladi

12:30 – 13:30 Lunch

13:30 – 15:45 – Second Panel

Ms. Tomer Shadmy

The Era of Responsibility: Direct Social Responsibility as a Semiotic Base of Global Law

Commentators: Dr. Doreen Lustig, Faculty of Law, Tel Aviv University

Dr. Ayelet Libson

Ms. Natalie Davidson:

The Political Implications of Transnational Human Rights Litigation: Revisiting the Marcos Class Action

Commentator: Prof. Talia Fisher, Faculty of Law, Tel Aviv University

Mr. Sharon Bassan

Ms. Sharon Bassan:

Let me develop you - Procedural justice as a mile stone for legitimizing international institutions as the site of justice

Commentators: Prof. Guy Mundlak, Faculty of Law, Tel Aviv University

Ms. Manal Totry- Jubran

15:45 – 16:00 Coffee Break

16:00 – 18:15 – Third Panel

Ms. Orit Malka

The right to be obligated: obligation as the basis for rights in Talmudic Law

Commentators: Prof. Arye Edrei, Faculty of Law, Tel Aviv University

Ms. Tomer Shadmy

Dr. Ayelet Libson

“The Heart Knows its Own Bitterness”: Authority, Self, and the Origins of Patient Autonomy in Rabbinic Law

Commentators: Dr. Shay Wozner, Faculty of Law, Tel Aviv University

Ms. Orit Malka

Ms. Manal Totry- Jubran:

The Production of Spatial Rights Discourse by NGOs in Israel

Commentator: Prof. Neta Ziv, Faculty of Law, Tel Aviv University

Ms. Dana Alexander