

Minerva Center for Human Rights
The Buchmann Faculty of Law
Tel Aviv University

The International Law Workshop and Minerva Center for Human Rights at Tel Aviv University

invite you to a roundtable panel on:

The Status of Asylum-Seekers in Israel and International Law

Monday, May 14, 2018 at 16:15

The sessions will take place in the Sonia and Edward Kossoy Conference Room (307),
Buchmann Faculty of Law, Trubowicz Building, Tel Aviv University

Chaired by:

Prof. Aeyal Gross and Dr. Natalie Davidson
The Buchmann Faculty of Law, Tel Aviv University

Speakers:

Adv. Anat Ben-Dor, clinical instructor,
Tel-Aviv University Law School Refugee Rights Clinic

Mr. Mutasim Ali, refugee and law student,
College of Law and Business - Ramat Gan

Ms. Shani Bar-Tuvia, doctoral candidate, Hebrew University Jerusalem

Dr. Omri Ben-Zvi, Office of Legal Counsel and Legislative Affairs,
Ministry of Justice

Dr. Itamar Mann, Faculty of Law
Haifa University

A discussion with members of the audience will follow the speakers' presentations.

Event No.: 1124657

For parking on campus, please show this invitation at the university gate

To receive updates on the Minerva Center for Human Rights events
please scan:

